2007 Group Workcamps Foundation
Participation and Release Agreement

Thank you for your commitment to participate in the ministry of Group Workcamps Foundation, a nonprofit 501(c)(3) organization. You have the opportunity to discover the rewards of providing care through service and outreach to a community.

If you are attending a Workcamp you may participate in home-repair activities such as carpentry, patching and installing drywall, digging and building steps and wheelchair ramps, insulating, painting, flooring, replacing windows and doors, and other miscellaneous types of home repair. Please understand that you are not required to do any work that you consider to be unsafe. You may be using hand tools and power tools (such as saws if over 18 years of age, and drills) climbing up and down ladders with and without tools and materials, and working in high places such as on ladders and scaffolding.

If you are attending a Week of Hope camp you will join in service projects to the community. Projects such as yard work, painting, cleaning, work with the elderly, children and/or animals are common. You may be using cleaning products and hand tools such as hoes, rakes, shovels, paintbrushes and rollers.

If you are attending a Service Expedition you may be working in either of the areas listed for Workcamps or Week of Hope. You may use any of the tools and supplies described above in a setting located outside the United States.

Group Workcamps Foundation works with many vendors and subcontractors, such as schools, material suppliers, local community agencies, churches and Group Publishing, Inc. Please note that Group Workcamps Foundation and Group Publishing, Inc., are separate and distinct organizations.

By signing this form you acknowledge these activities have inherent dangers that no amount of care, caution, instruction, or expertise can eliminate. Upon recognition of the inherent risks in the nature of the work involved and for the opportunity to participate in a camp, by signature below, you release and discharge Group Workcamps Foundation, and its directors, officers, employees, vendors and agents from liability. You covenant with them that you will never, individually or as legal guardians of participating individuals, institute any action at law or in equity for any personal injuries, or injuries to property, real or personal, caused by, or arising out of workcamps and other related activities sponsored by Group Workcamps Foundation, its successors and legal representatives. You further agree to indemnify and hold Group Workcamps Foundation harmless against any and all costs, damages, and expenses, which may be incurred by them as a result of any lawsuit you might file against them.

By signing this form you acknowledge that you (and your child) have read and agree to abide by the applicable Code of Conduct. You further give permission for your child to be transported in vehicles for camp activities and to receive professional healthcare if necessary.

By signing this form you hereby authorize Group Workcamps Foundation and Group Publishing, Inc. (on behalf of Group Workcamps Foundation) to use or disclose you or your child's protected health information for the purposes of treatment, payment, health care operations or any other disclosures as allowed by law in connection with any accident, medical incident or claim made.

Photographs and/or video and sound recordings of yourself or your child may be made during the project. You authorize the use of such material by Group Workcamps Foundation for its purposes.

The laws of the State of Colorado will govern any dispute rising out of the camp. We are grateful for you (and your child's) willingness to minister together with us.
